Paly TEAM Scholarship Sponsorship Program (2016 – 2017)

Paly TEAM Scholarship Sponsorships

The Paly Interdisciplinary Experience (TEAM) currently serves 25% of the 9th grade class (127 students) at Palo Alto High School. This program creates a small community within the larger school environment, allowing 9th graders to thrive academically and socially. It is available to any interested 9th grade student.

Why Sponsor Palo Alto High School's TEAM program?

Part of the Palo Alto Unified School District, TEAM was founded in 1998 as an inter-disciplinary 9th grade core program that will:

- Support students to achieve their academic potential
- Address different learning styles, achievement levels and interests through hands-on activities and field trip experiences
- Foster a community of students, parents and teachers
- Increase student-teacher interactions and connections in a school of 2000+ students
- Offer leadership opportunities for upperclassmen TEAM alums

Sponsorship Benefits:

- Recognition on TEAM website (team.paly.net)
- Year-end letter on TEAM's program success

TEAM Funding

No student is denied entry to TEAM, nor will they be denied participation in any TEAM event for financial reasons. Scholarships are available to any families who need them. Paly Interdisciplinary Experience (TEAM) is a 501C-3 nonprofit organization that raises and manages the funds required to pay for program costs, such as:

- Interdisciplinary curriculum development,
- Purchase of supplies and transportation costs
- Underwrite field trips (i.e. team building overnight campout, nature exploration week in Yosemite, community service day, Monterey Aquarium visit, student leadership trip)
- Teacher overtime for supervision during TEAM field trips

The Paly Interdisciplinary Experience program is tax exempt as described in section 501(C)(3) of the IRS code. Contributions to TEAM are tax deductible.
